

DOWN AT THE LEGION

September 24, 2011

Show starts at 8pm

There are three sacred symbols common to all small towns in Ontario: hockey arenas, Tim Horton's and the Royal Canadian Legion.

DOWN AT THE LEGION is a fun loving comedy about fish fry suppers, meat draws, Euchre tournaments and the Ladies Artillery. This hit new show is coming to your local Legion and bringing lots of laughs with it. Please join us for a proud and patriotic salute to small town life and show your support for our troops.

A portion of the proceeds are donated to The Military Families Fund
